Frequently Asked Questions

What is the best time to visit?

The best time for a safari is during the dry season when wildlife is more easily spotted. However, each season offers unique experiences, so any time of year can be rewarding.

What should we pack?

Pack light, breathable clothing, a hat, sunscreen, and comfortable shoes. Binoculars and a camera are essential for capturing wildlife and landscapes.

Are vaccinations required?

Check with your healthcare provider for recommended vaccinations. Yellow fever and malaria precautions are often advised for travel in Tanzania.

Is travel insurance necessary?

Travel insurance is highly recommended to cover unexpected events such as medical emergencies, trip cancellations, or lost luggage.

Can dietary needs be accommodated?

Yes, please inform us of any dietary requirements in advance, and we will ensure your needs are met throughout the trip.

Are the safaris suitable for begi ers?

Absolutely. Our guides are experienced and will ensure you have a safe and enjoyable experience, regardless of your prior safari knowledge.

How is the weather in Tanzania?

Tanzania generally has a warm climate, with cooler temperatures in the highlands. The weather can vary, so layers are recommended.

What forms of payment are accepted?

We accept major credit cards and cash. It's advisable to have some local currency for small purchases and tips.
